

I am concerned that the quality and variety of programming is being eroded because of consolidation in the broadcasting industry. I am all for free market consolidation, but further consolidation through expanded broadcast ownership is not the way to go.

Do not enact policy or regulations that allow for further consolidation in this industry.